NEWS FROM Nick Vanderwerker MMGA Representative

Lots of our snowbirds have left us, but play goes on and we wish all safe journeys both out and back.

Work has started to return #16 hazard area to a more challenging condition as it was in the past.

Just a reminder, if you forget to sign up for Wednesday play by the deadline on Tuesday afternoon, you can come down Wednesday before 7:30 am and we can usually work you in somewhere.

Wishing you all lower scores in June.

NEWS FROM Betty Gibson MWGA Representative

Lots of news going on with the MWGA. First thanks to all of the work and generosity of our organization and the club for the renovation of the ladies bathroom. The remodel job should be completed by the end of June.

Second, again due to the generosity of the Red Nose Ladies on Red, White and Blue Day we collected 135 pounds of food to donate to Salvation Army.

RED NOSE DAY

Barbara Kowalski & Karen Teegarden dressed for the occasion, nose and all.

Third, save the date on Wednesday October 5th we will be sponsoring a Fashion Show and Lunch featuring Fashion Labels.

Congratulations to Marge Parkinson for her Eagle on hole #7

Tom Lawrenson & John Buono

Tom and John have been friends since before high school and graduated together in 1964. After John got a double eagle on hole #16 on April 15th during the Member Guest Tournament, Tom wanted to do something special for John and presented him with a plaque that will be on the hillside of hole #16 for all to see.

"not only does Chef Mark produce delicious food, he also insures that the kitchen is clean and sanitary as well"!
